

Mattawan Resident Celebrates 100th Birthday

"I've spent a long time in this small town, nothing much has changed" says John Johnson.

Johnson moved into Mattawan nearly eighty four years ago, and has lived in his small house ever since.

Life in Mattawan

Johnson moved in when he had just recently finished school and began searching for job opportunities. He found his loving wife, Linda Johnson, who sadly passed away in 2002, and began to fit in with the Mattawan crowd.
